

8th Annual Walk to End Poverty

May 18, 2013

Consumer Credit Counseling Foundation, Inc. proudly sponsored the Alameda County- Oakland Community Action Partnership's (AC-OCAP) 8th Annual Walk to End Poverty on May 18, 2013, along with various notable sponsors.

AC-OCAP is a new partnership between the County of Alameda and the City of Oakland that oversees Federal funds and programs in America's War on Poverty. Ashley and Gerardo tabled for this event, and offered more information about CCCF's services and Senior Financial Safety Seminar, to other organizations and Walk to End Poverty participants.

