Senior Financial Safety: Scams to Avoid

May 15, 2013

Consumer Credit Counseling Foundation, Inc. was invited by the Congress of California Seniors to present 'Senior Financial Safety: Scams to Avoid.'

This event, held at Wittenberg Manor I in Hayward, included a presentation by the Congress of California Seniors, a raffle, refreshments, and door prizes. CCCF was delighted to have an attentive and engaged audience – attendees shared scam encounters, and also asked questions about preventive measures to take against scams and fraud schemes.
